This workshop is for those interested in preparing and getting ready to go wherever God may lead them AND for those interested in mentoring others. "Formations" is a valuable discipleship program for any follower of Jesus, including but not limited to, those preparing for overseas service. ### Crowdsourcing for Missions

 Nick Wu   Room Sapphire 119

Mission efforts of the 1% in professional ministry will not be enough to finish the Great Commission. The other 99% of the Church has a part to play, but they are often under-utilized within the church. Crowdsourcing Mission is about activating the 99% through their digital and marketplace skills to find their place in missions. Through new opportunities with technology and remote work, the 99% can take part in innovation, collaboration, and co-creation with mission organizations and frontline workers.

Asbury Revival - Perspective of Intercessor and Student Leader

 HongToo Leow  Canaan Yan  Room Sapphire 110

Many have heard of the Asbury Revival - of how a group of students stayed behind on an "ordinary" chapel day and hosted the Presence of God through worship and repentance. As the words spread, more and more people came from cities in the USA as well as from many nations. Experience has shown past revivals usually happened through much prayer, fasting and repentance. Rev Leow will share his own faith journey of hearing God to move to Asbury, a little town of 5,000 people to pray for revival. He will also share the many lessons and challenges faced along this journey of faith and intercession. Canaan will share his perspective as a student leader encountering the Presence of God in the midst of the chapel room.

Loving Your City - "Should I not be concerned about that great city (Nineveh)?" Jonah 4:11

 Anton Tarigan   Room Sapphire 112

With the rapid urbanization of the world, it is projected that in less than 30 years, more than two-thirds of the world population will live in cities. The urban/ city lifestyle is marked by busyness with one's own life in the midst of great diversity, race, culture, social and economic background, language and interest etc. Young people from Christian families are no longer interested in the Church or Christianity. Despite the awakening of Christianity in South Korea during the last several decades, it was expected that 30 % of the young people in South Korea will be Christ followers. But what we see today is totally different after the tsunami of KPOP and a western lifestyle that is adopted by many young people who live in the city. How best should we reach out to more unbelieving youths and bring them to the Church? How should we seek the peace and prosperity of the city to which God has planted us? (Jeremiah 29:7). Come and hear from this workshop how you can love your city and reach out to the young people in your land.

Empowering Churches Globally Using Technology

 Livia Zhang   Room Sapphire 111

Livia will share some of the common and unique issues that churches are facing in persecuted countries, as well as the ministry challenges post-covid. This workshop will also share how technology can help in such a battle and to empower churches globally. She founded NissiSpace in 2021. This is a SaaS platform that delivers Gospel content, especially in persecuted countries. This is like a virtual building with infinite rooms, where each church has its own private and hidden room filled with spiritual food, that has multi-layered encryption. Come learn how you can use technology to share the Gospel, especially in closed access countries.

Spiritual and Business Principles in Effective Business as Mission

 Nelson King   Room Sapphire 118

Those interested in overseas missions with professional and business skills often ask how God can use them in reaching the unreached. The earliest missionaries used their skills to open clinics and schools. Their secret to the success of these businesses was building natural relationships. They sought to bless their communities. Learn the spiritual and business principles that drive the effectiveness of business as mission with actual cases from the region.

Artificial Intelligence (AI) and Natural Language Processing (NLP)

Come join us!

The Core Missionary Task: What Do Missionaries Do?

 Jonathan and Penny Lockwood   Room Sapphire 105

Missionaries go to people who do not know Jesus Christ with the prayer-filled objective of making them disciples of Jesus Christ. A faithful reading of Scripture applied to practical missiology has led us to six essential components of missionary service. We call these the Core Missionary Task. We will introduce how missionaries approach 1] entry to a new field, 2] evangelism of unsaved peoples, 3] discipleship of new believers, 4] church-planting to establish the Body of Christ where it never existed, 5] leadership development methods that empower local leaders, and 6] on-going partnership with the indigenous church in new mission fields. We will share a case study from our ministry to demonstrate the joys and challenges of each element of the missionary task.

Church Planting Next to an Active Volcano

 Wayne Chen   Room Sapphire 117

This workshop offers an overview of the process of church-planting among an unreached animistic tribal group - the Biem people of Papua New Guinea. This people group has no written language and has very little contact with the outside world. This is the story of how God planted His church among them. This workshop will focus on the specific process of tribal church-planting: language & cultural acquisition, pre-evangelism, gospel presentation, church formation and disciplining until maturity. Beyond the practical strategies, we will also delve into the foundational principles that every missionary needs to hold firm to in their mission work.
